The Jim Joseph Building is the new, state-of-the-art headquarters for the largest School of Education under Jewish auspices in the world.

It will house the Lookstein Center for Jewish Education in the Diaspora, which offers world renowned programs to enhance the skills of day school educators and administrators in the United States and throughout the world.

This majestic building will also be the inspiring home for the Bar-Ilan University/NCSY "Israel Experience" program, which strengthens the Jewish identity of American Jewish high school graduates.
